WELCOME TO THE SEPTEMBER 2021 NEWSLETTER

Dear Fellow Tinmoggers,

Pat Ward's funeral was held on August 19th at Penmount Crematorium. Many of the members that remembered Pat attended, and we had a line of seven Morgans as a tribute to him and the work he had done as a founder member to start our Club. He will be sadly missed.

There were no organised, social events for Tinmog in August, but September arrived and a lunch was organised by John and Lesley at the London Inn, Summercourt.

As always, John and Lesley provided the excellent weather that Morganeers relish enabling us to arrive and depart with hoods down, our great thanks to them.

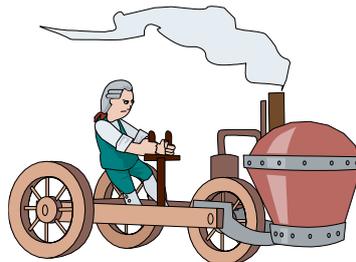

Our members, Paul and Jackie, arrived in their new, brightly coloured Plus 4, they were making the most of the good weather.

Sadly, the Centre Secretary and Events Coordinator were not able to use their Morgan on this occasion. On the previous Sunday, we had used the Morgan on a charity run in aid of MacMillan Cancer Support, the route was to follow the old A30, as much as possible, from the Cornish border at Launceston to Lands End. All went well until our return where on driving up Bodmin Road in Truro, 200 yards from home, the windscreen was engulfed with steam. I thought the Morgan had morphed into a traction engine, so we coasted back home. What was odd was that I went to the car 30 minutes after our return to find that the cooling system was still pressurized, very odd. The car is now at the Morgan hospital and is making good progress.

There will be no lunch meeting in October as the Autumn Tour is taking place, after - will it, won't it – go ahead due to the ever-changing regulations Mr. Drakeford had imposed. But we've got there and both hotels are looking forward to having us stay with them. We now wait with bated breath for the weather, John, Lesley, where are you?

Lesley, after many difficulties, has managed to book a Sunday Lunch for the Club in November. Until recent days, restaurants have been unwilling to take groups of more than six people, but Lesley has managed to make a booking at the Plume of Feathers, Mitchell.

Also in November, Roger and Shirley are organising a 16 Point Challenge in aid of Macmillan Cancer Support. They are always good fun, and if you would like to take part, please contact them by email for full details on rjbhoskin@icloud.com.
